Chambers High Net Worth Recognizes 20 Day Pitney Attorneys for Private Wealth Law

Day Pitney is pleased to announce that the firm and 20 attorneys in its Private Client Department have been ranked in the 2022 Chambers High Net Worth (HNW) Guide,* a Chambers and Partners publication specifically aimed at the international private wealth market. The guide covers private wealth management work and related areas around the world, featuring in-depth editorials about the leading professional advisers to wealthy individuals and families in each market.

The firm again ranked in the Chambers HNW Guide for Private Wealth Law in the Nationwide Eastern Region, as well as in Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, and Rhode Island. Day Pitney was recognized with Band 1 rankings for their practices in Connecticut, Massachusetts, and Rhode Island.

Day Pitney has "a huge amount of experience advising private clients on their wealth planning," according to Chambers.

With nearly 80 lawyers in the firm's Trusts and Estates practice, Day Pitney offers private clients one of the deepest and most experienced practices in the country. The attorneys have hundreds of years of combined experience advising individuals and their families on the full spectrum of matters related to trusts and estates and family offices. In addition, 15 attorneys are elected fellows of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC), a group of peer-elected trust and estate attorneys across the United States and abroad with more than 10 years of experience in the active practice of probate and trust law or estate planning.

Twenty attorneys were ranked for Private Wealth Law or Family/Matrimonial for High Net Worth in their respective states, including eight attorneys who received Band 1 rankings. Three attorneys were also ranked for Private Wealth Law in the Nationwide Eastern Region category. The lawyers recognized are as follows ("[1]" denotes a Band 1 ranking):
