Overview

Robert "Bob" Rahilly serves as the Managing Partner of Day Pitney's Stamford Office and in his practice assists clients, ranging from Fortune 100 companies to startup ventures, with commercial real estate matters, including the financing, acquisition, leasing and sale of real property. He represents lenders and borrowers in all aspects of commercial real estate financing transactions, including CMBS transactions and construction financing. In addition, Bob advises landlords and tenants on long term ground leases, build-to-suit leases and space leases for all asset classes, including office, distribution, industrial, retail and healthcare.

A large portion of Bob's practice is as corporate real estate counsel for many major corporations and in this role he routinely works with corporate real estate teams comprised of real estate transaction managers, in-house counsel, and commercial real estate brokers.
