Corporate & Business Law

Overview

We serve as securities and corporate counsel to NYSE-, NASDAQ- and AMEX-listed companies across a wide swath of industries including energy, banking, real estate, healthcare, communications, manufacturing, and technology. We also advise closely-held and family-owned companies and their owners throughout all stages in the life-cycle of such businesses from start-up through sale. Our lawyers advise on corporate governance, regulatory compliance, securities law, state corporate law, and tax and benefits issues, and the firm offers a strong transactional practice in the areas of private equity, capital markets, joint ventures, and mergers and acquisitions.
