Insights Thought Leadership

November 7, 2024

NJ Appellate Division Holds 'Clickwrap' Arbitration Provision Enforceable

Day Pitney Litigation Attorneys Michael L. Fialkoff and Andrew R. Ingalls authored the article "NJ Appellate Division Holds 'Clickwrap' Arbitration Provision Enforceable," for the New Jersey Law Journal. The article discusses the New Jersey Appellate Division's recent decision holding that an arbitration provision in Uber's Terms of Use is enforceable. The decision underscores that such provisions can be powerful tools for businesses seeking to keep disputes out of the court system, and also the need for consumers to carefully review the Terms of Use presented for any website or app.

Read the full article here.

Authors

Michael L. Fialkoff Senior Associate Parsippany, NJ | (973) 966-8139 mfialkoff@daypitney.com

Andrew R. Ingalls Partner Miami, FL | (305) 373-4032 aingalls@daypitney.com

