Five Tips for an Effective Mediation Statement

September 4, 2019

Mark A. Romance authored an article, "Five Tips for an Effective Mediation Statement," which was published by the American Bar Association, Section of Litigation. As noted in the article, Romance says developing a solid mediation statement can be an attorney's roadmap to a successful settlement. He suggests that brevity, specificity and balance are all essential components of crafting a statement that will get the mediator focused and ready in advance of the session.
