Overview

Casey A. Sieck brings more than a decade of legal experience across both the public and private sectors. Her practice focuses on representing financial institutions, government agencies, and commercial clients in matters involving regulatory compliance, loan enforcement, and litigation in both state and federal courts. She also advises on loan origination and liquidation, administrative law, bankruptcy, ethics compliance, and complex commercial and real estate litigation.

Before joining Day Pitney, Casey served as Area I Counsel for the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA), where she led a legal team supporting 13 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands. She directed legal strategy in more than 2,100 PPP loan forgiveness appeals and 1,000 bankruptcy cases, managed loan originations and financings in Massachusetts, and served as the office's ethics official. She continues to contribute nationally as a member of the SBA's Environmental Committee.

Earlier in her career, Casey worked in private practice where she represented clients in a range of matters, including commercial litigation, real estate transactions, bankruptcy proceedings, and general civil disputes. In addition, Sieck is an active speaker in the legal and lending communities, regularly presenting on SBA lending, environmental compliance, and loan servicing at national industry conferences.
