Overview

Day Pitney Intellectual Property attorneys approach matters holistically. Whether you need help with a single mark or an entire portfolio, we know that your goal is to protect your brand. We understand that the goal of patent prosecution is not a blue ribbon, but a strategic asset for your company. Every day, our intellectual property attorneys help clients acquire, secure, transfer, defend, enforce and understand their intellectual property rights.

We prosecute patents and trademarks; negotiate and draft agreements for the license and sale of intellectual property rights; litigate intellectual property disputes in federal and state courts around the country, including before the International Trade Commission (ITC) and the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office; and advise clients on the entire array of evolving intellectual property issues modern businesses confront, including workplace policies relating to Internet access and use, social media, and privacy. The hallmark of Day Pitney attorneys in all of these endeavors is teamwork. Our litigators, prosecutors and transactional lawyers work together to ensure that the ultimate goal is met: yours.
